

A SONG CREATED ESPECIALLY FOR

MAYA

A one-of-a-kind song created from the people, memories and moments that make you... you.

Title: Make Today Count

[Verse 1]

Maya makes everybody feel at home Warm and funny, steady as they come She loves hiking trails and flowers in the spring Chocolate-chip cookies and old country songs to sing
With Copper beside her when the weekend rolls around
She lives by the words, "Make today count"

[Chorus]

Oh, Maya, you're the light in every room
You make ordinary days feel brand new Forty candles shining for a heart so kind and true
Your family's held together by the love inside of you Happy birthday, Maya, may your wishes all come true
Life is brighter just because of you

[Verse 2]

Every summer brings you back to Willow Lake
Gathering the family for the memories you make One year rain came pouring down and soaked the whole picnic

You kept everybody laughing and dancing through it Then the clouds rolled away and the sunshine came around You turned a rainy day to joy, like you always do somehow

[Bridge]

You're the kind of friend who's there through thick and thin Dependable, adventurous, with a welcoming grin

[Final Chorus]

Oh, Maya, you're the light in every room
You make ordinary days feel brand new
true
Your family's held together by the love inside
of you
Happy birthday, Maya—make today count like you do
Life is brighter just because of you
